How to make it less wash out inside the light fixture and still maintain the lighting effect in the room?