

This screenshot shows the Microsoft Outlook desktop application. The interface includes a navigation pane on the left with folders for 'Mail', 'Calendar', 'Contacts', and 'Tasks'. The main window is divided into three sections: a 'Mail' pane at the top, a 'Calendar' view in the middle showing a weekly calendar for May 2008, and a 'To-Do Bar' on the right displaying a list of tasks. The tasks are organized by due date, with a 'Sort by Due Date' dropdown menu. The tasks include 'Check in on the team' and 'Review the team's progress'.

This screenshot shows the Autodesk Revit Architecture 2010 software interface. The main view is a 2D floor plan of a room and chair storage area. The room is labeled 'Room 122' with an area of '1353 SF'. The chair storage area is labeled 'CHAIR STOR 121' with an area of '126 SF'. A callout bubble points to a specific location within the chair storage area, also labeled '121'. The interface includes a ribbon at the top with various toolsets like 'Annotate', 'Modify', and 'Collaborate'. A project browser on the left shows the current project structure, including 'Room 122' and 'CHAIR STOR 121'. The status bar at the bottom indicates the current view is '2D Floor Plan'.
